

Final Programme for 5th ICI-RS 22-24 September 2014

Date	Time	Event	Chair/s
Monday 22 September	12.30-13.30	Lunch and Registration in Waterside 3
	13.30-15.15	TT1: What are the implications for bidirectional communication between afferent nerves and urothelial cells?	Christopher Fry /Anthony Kanai
	13.30-15.15	TT2: When should video, and/or EMG, be added to conventional urodynamics, and is it justified by the evidence?	Peter Rosier/Ralf Anding
	13.30-15.15	TT3: Would a new definition and classification of nocturia and nocturnal polyuria improve our management of patients?	Ruud Bosch/ Jeff Weiss
	15.15-15.45	Tea
	15.45-16.30	D: Are health economic evaluations worth the paper they are written on?	Con Kelleher
	16.30-17.15	P1: Is our psychological and physical environment important in the genesis of LUTS and LUTD in adults and children?	Alexander von Gontard
	19.30	Welcome dinner at the Riverstation restaurant

Tuesday 23 September	08.30-10.15	TT4: Do we understand how botulinum toxin works, and have we optimised the dose, sites and frequency of injections, in children and adults?	Roger Dmochowski / Arun Sahai
	08.30-10.15	TT5: Do we need to know more about the effects of hormones on LUTD?	Ann Hanna-Mitchell / Georgi Petkov
	08.30-10.15	TT6: Can we construct and validate contractility and obstruction nomograms for women?	Andrew Gammie /Kevin Rademakers
	10.15-10.45	Coffee
	10.45-11.30	P2: Translational science/medicine – how should the findings from pre-clinical studies be integrated into testable hypotheses in exploratory clinical studies?	Donald Newgreen
	11.30-12.30	Reports from TTs 1 – 3
	12.30-13.30	Lunch
	13.30-14.15	P3: Behavioural treatment (PFMT and bladder training) how, when and for whom?	Dudley Robinson
	14.15-15.00	D2: Is the Metabolic Syndrome related to the pathophysiology and treatment implications of LUTS?	Karel Everaert
	15.00-15.45	P4: How should new biomarkers for LUTD be identified, developed and introduced?	Andrea Tubaro
	15.45-16.00	Tea
	16.00-16.45	D3: “Urethral sphincter instability” – a neglected contributing factor in patients with bladder dysfunction?	Ruth Kirschner-Hermanns
	16.45-17.30	Reports from TTs 4 – 6
	18.30	Transport by ferry to the SS Great Britain
	19.00	ICI-RS Dinner at the SS Great Britain
	22.30	Coach from the SS Great Britain to the Ibis Hotel

Wednesday 24 September	09.00-10.45	TT7: Do we manage incontinence in children and adults with special needs adequately?	Tom de Jong / Suzy Elneil
	09.00-10.45	TT8: What are the central control mechanisms for urgency (OAB) and their relation to peripheral pathology?	Adrian Wagg / Apostolos Apostolidis
	09.00-10.45	TT9: Does detrusor underactivity exist, and if so is it neurogenic, myogenic or both?	Christopher Chapple / Phillip Smith
	10.45-11.00	Coffee
	11.00-11.45	P5: What are the benefits of combination drug therapy for treating LUTD?	Anthony Visco
	11.45-12.30	Reports from TT3 7 – 9
	12.30	ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING
	12.45	Lunch and Home
	19.00	Coach to the Berwick Lodge Restaurant
	19.30	Dinner at Berwick Lodge - for those stranded in Bristol	